Final Comments & Questions

Ms. Vančurová's thesis presents a grand example of a high quality graduate research project. It is based on a comprehensive and critical review of literature on learning vocabulary and learning strategies and call for vocabulary learning practices. The findings unveil somewhat insufficient use of learning strategies and call for better education of students in this area by their teachers. It is without any question that by completing this thesis, Ms. Vančurová developed a lot of expertise regarding learning strategies and their relevance for successfully mastery of vocabulary in a foreign language. Anybody familiarizing himself/herself with the thesis will gain a good understanding of ways to support students in their vocabulary study efforts.

I suggest that the author is awarded the grade "excellent" for her thesis project.
