| 1. Introduction is well written, brief, interesting, and compelling. It motivates the work and provides a clear statement of the examined issue. It presents and overview of the thesis.                                                                                                                                                                         | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |
| 2. The thesis shows the author's appropriate knowledge of the subject matter through the background/review of literature. The author presents information from a variety of quality electronic and print sources. Sources are relevant, balanced and include critical readings relating to the thesis or problem. Primary sources are included (if appropriate). | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |
| 3. The author carefully analyzed the information collected and drew appropriate and inventive conclusions supported by evidence. Ideas are richly supported with accurate details that develop the main point. The author's voice is evident.                                                                                                                    | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |
| 4. The thesis displays critical thinking and avoids simplistic description or summary of information.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |
| 5. Conclusion effectively restates the argument. It summarizes the main findings and follows logically from the analysis presented.                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |
| 6. The text is organized in a logical manner. It flows naturally and is easy to follow. Transitions, summaries and conclusions exist as appropriate. The author uses standard spelling, grammar, and punctuation.                                                                                                                                                | OutstandingVery goodAcceptableSomewhat deficientVery deficient |                 |

|                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                |  |
